CHEF KIM ALTER

Sustainable Chef of the year from Star Chefs and Owner of Nightbird
A CULINARY EARTH DAY CELEBRATION IN LOS CABOS

MEET THE CHEF

San Francisco-based award-winning and “sustainable” Chef Kim Alter showcases a creative spin on the classics, transporting guests of Waldorf Astoria Los Cabos Pedregal to new places through food.

KIM ALTER

Based in the Bay Area, female Chef Kim Alter is committed to technique, whole animal cookery, and the support of local farms. Working at the helm of kitchens in Oakland, California’s Haven and Plum, as well as some of San Francisco’s most notable restaurants from Manresa and Bunto to Acquerello, her culinary expertise celebrates the best of California’s diverse cultures, as well as its natural landscape. As the current chef and owner of Nightbird and adjoining cocktail destination Linden Room in San Francisco’s Hayes Valley, her food takes familiar dishes to new places with creative spins on the classics. Chef Alter earned a James Beard nomination in 2018, alongside Sustainable Chef of the Year from Star Chefs and Top 100 Restaurant from the Chronicle in 2019. Known for her well-crafted produce-focused menus, Alter is an incredible culinary force within the industry.

MASTERFULLY MADE

A Cocktail Reception in our Lobby to Celebrate Earth Day, featuring Patrón Tequila and Chateau Ste. Michell Wines.

This spectacular sundown cocktail reception is the perfect prelude to our special Earth Day celebrations, featuring masterfully made cocktails from Patrón Tequila and wines from Chateau Ste. Michell. Join us in the main lobby of Waldorf Astoria Los Cabos to indulge in the finest of margaritas and wine by-the-glass from Washington state vineyards which highlight the style, quality, and expression of each location they come from. Exhilarate the senses as our special guest chef Kim Alter pairs and introduces her take on the classics through technique, whole animal cookery, and creative spins on familiar dishes. Your host for this masterfully made evening is General Manager, Fernando Flores, together with our very own Executive Chef, Gustavo Pinet. Legendary and intimate culinary moments await, followed by an incredible display of fireworks and live entertainment to kick off our celebrations.

A TASTE OF EARTH DAY

A Special Wine Tasting Masterclass with Chateau Ste. Michell Wines.

Begin our official celebration of Earth Day with a special wine tasting from Chateau Ste. Michell Wines. This masterclass will feature six wines from Washington, Oregon, and California, a mix of three whites and three reds. With a winemaking philosophy focused on respecting the varietal characters and individuality of each location, this tasting will provide guests with a pleasurable, food friendly experience—an ideal way to celebrate our Earth and the fruit of its land. Joined by our Wine Director, Jhonatan Adame , at Su Cocina you will be comfortably surrounded by mineral-rich, elemental colors and earthen, hacienda-style wares to set the mood. Enjoy a special taste of Earth Day as you're guided by Chateau Ste. Michell Winery's Managing Director of Latin America & the Caribbean, Pablo Porreti, through an array of wines with a stamp of softness, uniqueness, and approachability.

Time: 5:00 p.m.

Price: $90 per Person
